

Would you mind DYING for a moment?

It's hard to imagine, but maybe you should take a few minutes to think the unthinkable...

What would happen to your family?

How would the mortgage be paid?

Who would take care of the children's university costs?

People with life insurance have the answer. It is there to ensure that the people you care about are provided for when you're not there to do it.

Whether you're a breadwinner or a homemaker, you are indispensable.

So when you make financial plans for the future, think about how life insurance could provide for your family if anything were to happen to you.

Life insurance isn't for the people who die, it's for the people who live!

Ken MacCoy, RHU – Your Strategic Financial Partner can help you design a plan for life. A plan that will make sure that the things you love will always be there for the people you love.
